Special Dispatch to The Tribune
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. 27. — Litigation of the years' standing was ended to day when a jury in the District of Columbia Supreme Court decided that the late Stilson Hutchins, millionaire washing to messpaper publisher, was mentally incompetent when he made his will, October 26, 1910.

The verdict sets aside the document which gave 35 per cent of the $4,000,000 cestate to the widow, a like share to a son, Walter S., 20 per cent to another son, Lee, and 10 per cent to a grand-daughter. The will was contested by Lee Hutchins.

Mr. Hutchins made two other wills—one in 1908 and one in 1902. It is understood the widow will seek probate of the will of 1908, under which she would receive 40 per cent of the estate. WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. - Litigation
